
Dedicated to the WOMAN'S LAND ARMY

LAND ARMY

Words by RIDGEWOOD UNIT

MARCH

SONG

COMPOSED BY

NINA BRANDRETH

Price 50 cents

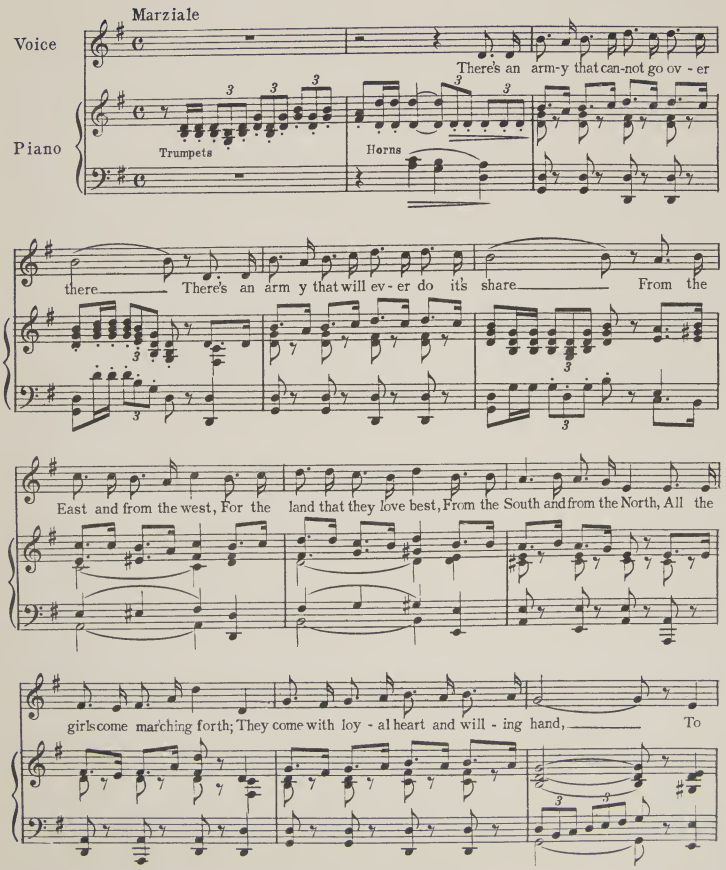
NEW-YORK:
J.F. SCHROEDER,
10 EAST 16TH ST.

Dedicated to the Woman's Land Army

LAND ARMY

MARCH

NINA BRANDRETH



Marziale
Voice
Piano
There's an arm-y that can-not go ov - er Trumpets Horns
there There's an arm y that will ev - er do it's share From the East and from the west, For the land that they love best, From the South and from the North, All the girls come marching forth; They come with loy - al heart and will - ing hand, To

Copyright 1918 by Nina Brandreth raise the food their count-ry will de-mand They're spir-its nev-er lag, For they're work-ing for their flag, And as they swing a-long, You can ev-er hear their song Refrain

We are the girls of the Land, And for Lib-er-ty we take our Now we will work with good cheer, And we'll raise, bet-ter crops ev-ry f stand, We'll fight for the right with our might, As we year, Of bar-ley, of wheat and of rye, As the march with our hoe in hand For the song of our hoe rings clear, We will boys who have gone ov - er there, And for Bel - gium and France so work with our men hand, in hand, As for lib - er - ty we take fair, We'll sow the seed, our Al - lies to feed, Till stand, We'll har - vest the grain, till peace comes a - gain, And 1

2
peace ev - 'ry land shall de - clare still be the girls of the Land
sffz